This document is strictly for information purposes and should not be considered as an offer, investment recommendation, or solicitation to deal in any of the investments mentioned herein.

Investment objective

The objective of the abrdn Eclipse HFRX Macro/CTA SPC – Segregated Portfolio ("abrdn Eclipse HFRX Macro/CTA Index Fund, "HFRX Macro/CTA" or the "Fund") is to track the HFRX Macro/CTA Index (the "Index") as closely as possible. The Fund seeks to achieve its investment objective by investing directly in the underlying constituent hedge funds. An indexing approach is used in managing the Fund's investments. The Fund does not attempt to outperform the Index the Fund tracks. The Fund will track the Index by holding the constituents of the Index at the relevant Index constituent weights and will rebalance in line with the Index on a quarterly basis.

Fund highlights

Macro strategy managers trade a broad range of strategies in which the investment process is predicated on movements in underlying economic variables and the impact these have on equity, fixed income, hard currency and commodity markets. Managers employ a variety of techniques, both discretionary and systematic analysis, combinations of top down and bottom up theses, quantitative and fundamental approaches and long and short term holding periods.

The HFRX Macro/CTA Index methodology is based on defined and predetermined rules and objective criteria to select and rebalance components to maximize representation of the Hedge Fund Universe. HFRX Indices utilize state-of-the-art quantitative techniques and analysis; multi-level screening, cluster analysis, Monte-Carlo simulations and optimization techniques ensure that each Index is a pure representation of its corresponding investment focus.

Portfolio management

A 30+ strong team of investment professionals is responsible for HFRX Macro/CTA. The team consists of portfolio managers and analysts with experience across macro, equities, fixed income, credit and event-driven funds. They are further supported by experienced operations and management professionals and together are responsible for asset allocation and day-to-day portfolio management.

Fund Commentary

In May, the fund was down. Looking at the underlying strategies, Systematic Diversified managers led performance with a negative return while Discretionary Thematic managers had a moderate gain. 67% of the Discretionary Thematic managers made a profit this month, while only 17% of Systematic Diversified managers were profitable. The return dispersion narrowed compared to the previous month, with the top-performing fund gaining 2.96%, while the worst-performing fund had a negative return of -3.44%. When analysing funds by assets under management (AUM), those in the <$1bn bracket showed a lower median return than funds within the larger AUM bracket. Additionally, those funds with a management fee of 1% or more had a higher median return, coupled with a wider range of returns than those within the lower management fee bracket. Lastly, funds with a track record exceeding 10 years displayed a lower median return compared to those within the shorter track record range.

The HFRX Macro/CTA Investable Index ("HFRX Macro/CTA Index"), a broad-based investable hedge fund composite index, comprised of several sub-strategy indices.

An investment in any Fund managed or sponsored by Aberdeen or any of its affiliates or subsidiaries is subject to a variety of risks and considerations as (or as will be) detailed in the relevant confidential private placement memorandum or other similar materials and the information contained herein is qualified in its entirety by the more complete information that is (or will be) set forth in such confidential private placement memorandum or other similar materials. Investors should always refer to the offering material (private placement memorandum) for a complete description of the risks and other important information for the Fund.

Alternative investments involve specific risks that may be greater than those associated with traditional investments; are not suitable for all clients; and intended for experienced and sophisticated investors that meet specific suitability requirements. Hedge funds use sophisticated investment strategies that may increase investment risk in your portfolio. Among the risks presented by hedge fund investments are: the use of unregistered investments, which may make it difficult to assess the performance of the holding; risky investment strategies, which may result in significant losses; illiquid investments that may be subject to restrictions on transferability and resale; and adverse tax consequences.

All opinions and estimates in this document are those of Aberdeen, and constitute Aberdeen's best judgment as of the date stated. The information provided is for informational purposes only and does not constitute an offer to sell, or solicitation of an offer to purchase, any securities, nor does it constitute investment advice or an endorsement with respect to any investment vehicle. This material serves to provide general information to clients and is not meant to be legal or tax advice for any particular investor, which can only be provided by qualified tax and legal counsel.

An investment in the fund is speculative and involves certain risks. Prospective investors should ensure that they: (1) understand the nature of the investment and the extent of their exposure to risk; (2) have sufficient knowledge, experience and access to professional advisors to make their own legal, tax, accounting, and financial evaluation of the merits and risks of participating in an investment in the strategy; and (3) consider the suitability of investing in light of their own circumstances and financial condition. The fund's investment program is not suitable as the sole investment vehicle for an investor and should be part of an overall investment strategy.
