Important information

This document is strictly for information purposes and should not be considered as an offer, investment recommendation, or solicitation to deal in any of the investments mentioned herein.

Investment objective

The objective of the abrdrn Eclipse HFRI 500 SP is to track the HFRI 500 Index, as closely as possible. The Fund seeks to achieve its investment objective by investing directly in the underlying constituent hedge funds. An indexing approach is used in managing the Fund's investments. The Fund does not attempt to outperform the Index the Fund tracks. The Fund will track the Index by holding the constituents of the Index at the relevant Index constituent weights and will rebalance in line with the Index on a quarterly basis. The abrdrn Eclipse HFRI 500 SP is a diversified passive approach to hedge fund investing designed to deliver reduced volatility and low correlation with traditional assets.

Index: Fund highlights

The HFRI 500 index is a global, equal-weighted index of several hundred single-manager funds that report to the HFR Database. Constituent funds report monthly net of all fees performance in U.S. Dollar, have a twelve (12) month track record of active performance, contain no lock ups or gates and are open to new business.

Portfolio Management

A 30+ strong team of investment professionals is responsible for the abrdrn Eclipse HFRI 500 SP. The team consists of portfolio managers and analysts with experience across macro, equities, fixed income, credit and event-driven funds. They are further supported by experienced operations and management professionals and together are responsible for asset allocation and day-to-day portfolio management.

Fund Commentary

The abrdn Eclipse HFRI 500 SP was up in February. Macro had a strong month followed by Equity Hedge while Relative Value had a moderate return. However, Event Driven had a modest loss. The Systematic Macro SP was the top performer, while the Event Driven Multi-Strategy SP was the only sub-strategy to have a negative return. Compared to the previous month, the range of returns for the hedge fund universe widened, with the top-performing fund gaining 20.23% and the bottom-performing fund losing -18.14%. It was shown that within the Merger Arbitrage SP and the Volatility RV SP, all underlying funds were profitable in February, on the other hand Equity Market Neutral SP had the lowest win rate with only 50% of its constituents profiting. When analysed by track record, funds with a length of track record of less than 5 years had a significantly lower median return compared to funds with a longer length of track record. Additionally, it was shown that funds with an AUM higher than $1 billion had the highest median return across all AUM brackets. Finally, funds with a higher management fee of over 1.5% had a higher median return than funds in the smaller management fee brackets.

Important Information

Unless otherwise noted, all data contained in this document can be sourced to Aberdeen as of the most recent month end.

The above is strictly for private circulation and information purposes only and should not be considered as an offer, or solicitation, to deal in any of the investments mentioned herein. Such an offer may only be made to qualified investors by means of delivery of a confidential private placement memorandum or other similar materials that contain a description of material terms relating to such investment or services, and should be thoroughly reviewed. In the case of any discrepancy among the contents of this document and such confidential private placement memorandum or other similar materials, such confidential private placement memorandum or other similar materials shall prevail. No regulatory body, including without limitation, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and any U.S. State Securities Administrator, has approved or disapproved, passed on or endorsed the merits of the securities or services referenced herein.

Fund-specific risks

There are other risks associated with investing in the Fund Holdings including the possible application of redemption gates, redemption charges and the suspension of dealing by the Fund Holdings. Additional risks include, but are not limited to, valuation risk, interest rate fluctuations, leverage, economic and political conditions, regulatory changes, limitation of hedging techniques, currency rate fluctuations and risks arising from the use of derivatives. Derivative products are specialized instruments that require investment techniques and risk analyses different from those associated with stocks and bonds. The use of a derivative requires an understanding not only of the underlying instrument but also of the derivative itself. This is the risk that a loss may be sustained by the funds, either directly or through their investment in a Fund Holding, as a result of the failure of the other party to a derivative (usually referred to as a "counterparty") to comply with the terms of the derivative contract. The Fund Holdings may utilize leverage and other speculative investment practices that may increase the risk of investment loss, may be less liquid than certain direct investments and may not be required to provide immediate or on demand pricing or valuation information to the funds.

Past performance is not an indication of future results. Performance information provided herein is reflective of the HFRI 500 index and should not be considered as representative of the Fund. No inference is made that performance provided in connection with the Index be viewed as an indication of future outcomes for the Fund and/or any other Aberdeen offering. Performance information provided for illustrative purposes to demonstrate a representative track-record in connection with this Fund. While the index is net of underlying manager fees, no fund-level fees or expenses in connection with the Fund are reflected. If included, returns shown would have been reduced accordingly. Actual results may / will be different than returns associated with the Index. The HFRI 500 Investable Index ("HFRI 500"), a broad-based investable hedge fund composite index, comprised of several sub-strategy indices and in total allocating to 500 funds. You cannot invest directly in an index. Performance of the index is subject to revision for a period of four months as HFR receives updates from lagged funds.

An investment in any Fund managed or sponsored by Aberdeen or any of its affiliates or subsidiaries is subject to a variety of risks and considerations as (or as will be) detailed in the relevant confidential private placement memorandum or other similar materials and the information contained herein is qualified in its entirety by the more complete information that is (or will be) set forth in such confidential private placement memorandum or other similar materials. Investors should always refer to the offering material (private placement memorandum) for a complete description of the risks and other important information for the Fund. A copy of this document can be made available upon request by contacting Aberdeen.

Alternative investments involve specific risks that may be greater than those associated with traditional investments; are not suitable for all clients; and intended for experienced and sophisticated investors that meet specific suitability requirements. Hedge funds use sophisticated investment strategies that may increase investment risk in your portfolio. Among the risks presented by hedge fund investments are: the use of unregistered investments, which may make it difficult to assess the performance of the holding; risky investment strategies, which may result in significant losses; illiquid investments that may be subject to restrictions on transferability and resale; and adverse tax consequences.

All opinions and estimates in this document are those of Aberdeen, and constitute Aberdeen's best judgment as of the date stated. The information provided is for informational purposes only and does not constitute an offer to sell, or solicitation of an offer to purchase, any securities, nor does it constitute investment advice or an endorsement with respect to any investment vehicle. This material serves to provide general information to clients and is not meant to be legal or tax advice for any particular investor, which can only be provided by qualified tax and legal counsel.

An investment in the Fund is speculative and involves certain risks. Prospective investors should ensure that they: (1) understand the nature of the investment and the extent of their exposure to risk; (2) have sufficient knowledge, experience and access to professional advisors to make their own legal, tax, accounting, and financial evaluation of the merits and risks of participating in an investment in the strategy; and (3) consider the suitability of investing in light of their own circumstances and financial condition. The Fund's investment program is not suitable as the sole investment vehicle for an investor and should be part of an overall investment strategy.

The performance of the Funds depends on the success of the Fund Holdings. Past results of the Fund Holdings or other funds and accounts managed by the Managers are not necessarily indicative of future performance of the Fund Holdings. No assurance can be made that profits will be achieved or that substantial losses will not be incurred.

The funds will not have any role in the management of the Fund Holdings and will not have an opportunity to evaluate individual investments made by the Fund Holdings before they are made.

There can be no assurance that the Funds will achieve their respective investment objectives. Prospective investors should read this entire Platform Memorandum and the applicable Supplement(s) and consult with their own advisers before subscribing for Shares. Shares should only be purchased as a supplement to an overall investment program and only by investors able to undertake the risks involved. Investors should always refer to the offering material (private placement memorandum) for a complete description of the risks and other important information for the Fund.
